V.PHOTOGRAPHY AND IMAGE

1. Any person entering the Exhibition grounds consents to the use of their image, as well as the image of children under their care, in case the Organizer (or a person authorized by the Organizer) records videos and takes photos of the Exhibition. This also includes consent for these video or photographic materials to be used by the Organizer in any productions, presentations, advertisements, internal and external reports, without time or location restrictions. The publication of participants' images serves to promote the Exhibition and the Organizer's business activities.
2. Photos and films are taken spontaneously by photographers/cameramen, who do not have the ability to selectively document; instead, they focus on interesting shots regardless of the person. The dissemination of images is based on the permission of the person photographed or filmed, as referred to in Art. 81(1)(1) of the Copyright and Related Rights Act. Permission to disseminate the image is a declaration of intent expressed within the meaning of Art. 60

VI.FINAL PROVISIONS

1. In the event that a visitor violates the rules of these Regulations, the Organizer or persons authorized by the Organizer will first address the individual. If the individual continues to disregard the provisions of the Regulations, they reserve the right to expel the person from the premises.
2. In the case mentioned in point VI.1 of the Regulations, the visitor is not entitled to any compensation, including refunds for the purchase of tickets or other fees. The Organizer reserves the right to charge the individual for any costs incurred, particularly compensation, contractual penalties, repairs, and cleaning, resulting from the violation of prohibitions or failure to comply with the requirements set forth in the Regulations.

3. If the individual fails to comply with the order to leave the Exhibition grounds, as referred to in point VI.1 of the Regulations, the Organizer and/or persons authorized by the Organizer have the right to call law enforcement services, including the police.
4. These Regulations are available on the website: www.gardenoflights.pl and have been posted as information boards at the entrance to the Exhibition grounds.
5. The Organizer reserves the right to amend these Regulations.
